Year 3 learning:

Week beginning: Monday 5th January 2026

English	The children will be introduced to our new book Stone Age Boy . They will begin by looking at the front cover and blurb, using these to make predictions about the story. Our focus will then move to speech, including how to use speech marks correctly. We will also identify verbs and adverbs and practise using them in our writing.
Maths	This half term we will continue to focus on multiplication and division, concentrating mainly on the 3 and 4 times tables. The children will learn to write and calculate mathematical statements for multiplication and division using the tables they know, including multiplying two-digit numbers by one-digit numbers. They will begin with mental methods and progress to formal written strategies.
Science	In science our next topic will be 'Rocks and Fossils' Firstly, the children will learn how rocks are formed and to understand the different types of rocks. We will link this learning to the UAE by thinking about what types of rock are used to build buildings in the UAE, to keep them cool from the sun.
Topic	Our next topic will be The Stone Age , and we're starting it with a fantastic hands-on adventure! The children will dive straight into the past by creating their own woolly mammoths, campfires, Stone Age clothing and spears. They will then step fully into character, taking part in the kinds of activities Stone Age people experienced thousands of years ago. It's going to be an imaginative and unforgettable journey into prehistoric life! This half term we will also be teaching Design and Technology – sewing. The children will begin by researching Stone Age pouches and what they were used for. Learning about what would be a good material to use and then they will begin designing their own pouch.
